

Invitation for Private Investors

Dear friends,

As you know according to our idea we have special and numerous audience around the word, so we need to advertising in some special ways. Blockchain technology is a way of launching ideas and in this way this method has been successful and also useful, moreover by this way we can also have majority of people around the word that are not familiar enough to blockchain and cryptocurrencies. Also our idea have too many advantages and that we mentioned some of them briefly in our Whitepaper this idea also can make numerous of people become familiar with this new technology.

We would like to invite you making some cooperation with us during our advertising and also investing on our project. Deccoach team has special offer for whose want to cooperate with us.

Bests,
